Office Picture Continues To Brighten In Q3

Orange County's office market posted the best quarter since before the meltdown. Also, consecutive quarterly declines in vacant and available space were the first in four years.

Vacant space fell 0.5% in the third quarter to 18.13% and total available space settled at 22.2%, 1.3% less than for the same period last year. Year to date, net absorption is barely in negative territory at -147,999 which is in sharp contrast to the 2.7 million sq. ft. of negative absorption in 2009. The data tracks space in buildings larger than 30,000 sq. ft., representing a total base of 104.5 million sq. ft.

The 353,811 sq. ft. of positive absorption in Q3 was the most in 15 quarters and the first time since Q4 2008 that space has come off the market.

Average asking rents fell below the $2 level for the first time in Q3 to $1.99 and are 24% off their record high of $2.63 three years ago.

Countywide, available sublet space plunged in Q3, falling 374,000 sq. ft. to 631,936 sq. ft. It's the first time sublet space has totaled less than 1 million sq. ft. in three years and is at its lowest since Q1 2006.

Net absorption was up in four of the county's five markets. Leading the way were the Central County and Airport markets.

With 20.6 million sq. ft., the Central County market, which is divided by the Santa Ana Freeway and includes Anaheim, continued to perform well with a fourth straight quarter of positive net absorption, pushing its year-to-date gain to 331,658 sq. ft. In the current period, its vacant available space fell 0.2% to 13.2%.

The Airport market – the county's largest with roughly half of the total base inventory – accounted for 76% of the net gain with 269,437 sq. ft. on the plus side. Because of its size, however, the geographically wide area that includes the South Coast Metro and Newport Center submarkets saw its vacancy rate fall only 0.6% to 17.7% from the previous quarter.

North County's market with 9.99 million sq. ft. edged into positive territory for the first time since the end of 2008. But it still is saddled with 2.2 million sq. ft. of vacant available space, or 22.1% of its inventory.

South County with 19.2 million sq. ft. posted the county's biggest Q3 vacancy drop, falling 2% to 15.6%.

With about 5% of the office base inventory, the 5.5 million sq. ft. West County is the smallest market in Orange County but it had the highest occupancy rate at 87.3%. Some 51,605 sq. ft. of empty space came back into inventory in Q3.
